Reflections for Teachers
How might social context influence a situation or dynamic I encounter?
How might I be acting on beliefs, values, or assumptions that are unrelated to this moment?
Where do I need to increase my competence around social context?
How am I recognizing and responding to issues of inequity in my own practice, my pedagogy, and my community?